Bromsgrove School, founded in 1553, is a co-educational independent public school in the Worcestershire town of Bromsgrove, England.

The school comprises kindergarten, primary, and secondary sections for a total of around 1,600 boarding and day-school pupils and a teaching staff of 200. It is a founder member of the Headmaster's Conference. Bromsgrove is a great mix of historic and modern, nestled in over 100 magnificent acres. The heart of Bromsgrove's success is its people. 1,600 pupils, boys and girls, day and boarding, national and international, are what give Bromsgrove its vibrancy. And of course, a staff of some of the nation's finest educators, coaches and caregivers.
