Chelsea Independent college is a private co-educational day school located in London.

Their small class sizes facilitate collaborative lessons with students learning their way around their subjects at the same time as they grow as people. Chelsea offers a diverse environment; as well as their local student body, they welcome students from over 30 different nationalities. Both day and boarding pupils thrive in their vibrant and modern buildings.

Situated on the iconic Fulham Road, the college is ideally placed in a vibrant area of London, offering students academic and cultural enrichment. The state-of-the-art facilities, located just a two-minute walk from Fulham Broadway Station, are easily accessible by bus, tube or on foot. Located on the District Line, the college is extremely well-connected, with many of London's main attractions within easy reach. Knightsbridge, Kensington, Westminster and Piccadilly Circus are all less than 20 minutes by tube.
