Hereford Cathedral School is one of the oldest and most prestigious schools in the UK.

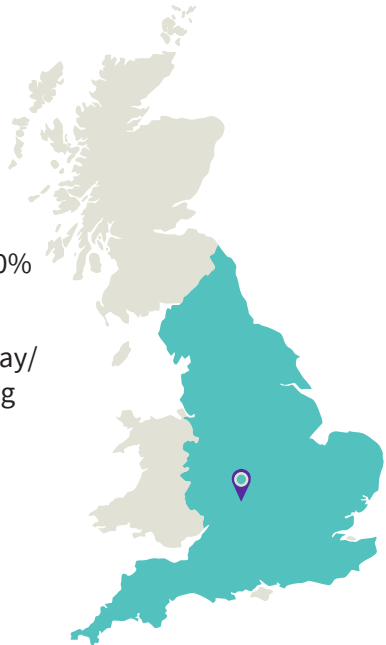

Located in the beautiful city of Hereford, which is set in rich English countryside, the school is a thriving and successful co-educational institution. A unique energy and spirit prevails where expectations are high and pupils excel. Small class sizes, specialist teaching staff and strong pastoral care ensure that academic standards and examination results are excellent. The majority of sixth form students go on to study at Russell Group Universities, with some 8% going on to either Oxford or Cambridge.
