North Bridge House Canonbury is an ‘outstanding’ independent sixth form in Islington, dedicated to understanding teenagers to maximise A-level success.

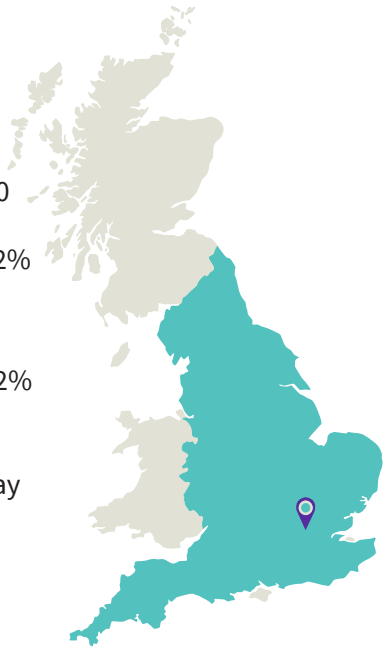

The sixth form is a leafy retreat just minutes away from Islington trendy Upper Street and bridges the gap between school and adulthood. As part of a smaller sixth form, students take greater responsibility for their learning but with one-to-one support readily available, the unique and contemporary approach sets our students apart, preparing them for the next stages of their life.

Founded in 1939, North Bridge House is a top private school located in the North of London. It consists of 5 campuses and has a total student population of over 1,000. It is one of the most highly recognized schools in the country. Since it was established, the school has grown rapidly, not only in terms of number and size, but also in achievements. The school expanded with 2 campuses in the early 1960’s and the primary school building has now become a landmark on Gloucester Street.
