quintonhouseschool.co.uk

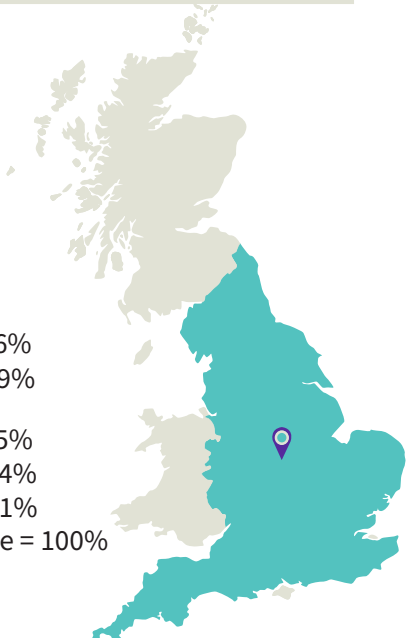

Located in the stunning sixteenth century Upton Hall, Quinton House is a school with a passion for education.

The school encourages responsibility and independence in learning, whilst advocating the highest professional standards in the quality of its teaching, pastoral care and extra curricula provision. As a small school they are able to focus in a meaningful way on each child as an individual. The enthusiasm that the School generates for education can also be measured in its thriving extracurricular programme with more than 100 activities per week in sports, performing and creative arts, and opportunities for additional courses of study.
