Wycliffe College is a co-educational, independent, private day and boarding school located in the town of Stonehouse in Gloucestershire, England.

The school was founded in 1882 and there are approximately 800 pupils enrolled. The college is set in 52 acres of land, distributed among three separate campuses and offsite facilities. Wycliffe is a member school of The Headmasters' and Headmistresses' Conference (HMC).

The Good Schools Guide stated that Wycliffe is "A school which offers a way of life as much as an education...A real gem of a school." The Independent Schools Inspectorate rated Wycliffe as either Excellent or Good in all areas in its most recent inspection (March 2016). Wycliffe has a commitment to identify and nurture individual potential, provide a safe and stimulating environment conducive to learning and an enhanced curriculum supported by an extensive extra-curricular programme that enriches the whole person and prepares them effectively for life after school.
